WEBCAST

- Meet face-to-face with leading OEMs, Tier-1 suppliers, and regional industry players through a structured, business-driven matchmaking program.
- Stand out on the show floor in a curated space that draws attention to startups and scaleups reshaping aerospace.
- Pitch your solution in front of a targeted audience of buyers, partners, and investors during exclusive innovation sessions.
- Gain visibility before, during and after the event through professionally produced interviews streamed on the event channels.

What's AeroLabs?

AeroLabs is the dedicated startup platform at Aerospace Meetings Casablanca, designed to connect emerging tech innovators with key decision-makers from the aeronautics and space sectors.

Whether you're a startup developing next-gen materials, AI-powered systems, advanced manufacturing tools, or clean propulsion solutions — AeroLabs is where your breakthrough meets the market.

ON-SITE:

- Display counter in the AeroLabs Pavilion
- Company logo & name printed on the counter's front side
- 1 schedule of pre-arranged B2B meetings over 2 days
- 1 exhibitor pass with full access for 3 days (Sept. 30 - Oct. 2)
- Access to the cocktail reception (Oct. 1)

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Companies must meet specific criteria:

- Embrace an innovative/disruptive/higher impact technology
- Have a turnover of less than EUR 2 million
- Have less than 50 employees
- Company established within the last 5 years
- Not affiliated with or belonging to a larger organization or group

COMMUNICATION & PROMOTION:

- A company/product highlight on the AeroLabs webpage
- Social media promotion across specialized platforms and AMC social platforms
- Mention in the AeroLabs section of the Official Show Guide
- Webcast during the event

With only 10 slots available, space is limited and will go quickly.

Make sure your startup is one of the pioneers and thought leaders selected to exhibit so you get the chance to meet and inspire the Aerospace Meetings Casablanca audience with your technology and concepts.

Inclusion in the AeroLabs Pavilion will be at the sole discretion of organizers.
